

ATLANTA HOUSING REPORT

Your source for all construction industry information, leads, prospects and news!

Weekly Report for Single and Multi-Family Permits!

The Atlanta Housing Report is a must have for those companies – building material suppliers, sub-contractors, service, financial and real estate – or any company that needs accurate, timely data on residential and multi-family construction activity.

Published weekly, The Atlanta Housing Report provides hundreds of permits covering 27 Metro Atlanta counties – you are always “in the know” about who is building what, where and of what size in new residential and multi-family construction. This report provides your sales and marketing staff with complete information on permits by builder and by subdivisions with current and aggregate Y-T-D permits, value and square footage – a great tool to easily find and target your market.

- Timely, accurate and comprehensive, the weekly The Atlanta Housing Report has the best coverage of residential real estate construction information available.

- The The Atlanta Housing Report is extremely user friendly – published in a unique “fast-read” format, sorted by county and with complete builder/subdivision contact and location information listed for all permits in search ranges.

Hear What Our Customers Say...

“We have used The Atlanta Housing Report for years and it continues to provide us with consistent, comprehensive, and timely market intelligence for the residential new construction industry. It helps us stay on top of the builder and subdivision activity for the 27 metro counties and is the perfect market analysis tool for us.”
